Montana Department Of Environmental Quality

❧ Recruitment ❧

Office of Information Technology

The Office of Information Technology (OIT) provides information technology support services for the department including network and systems administration, applications development, data management and customer support services.

OIT offers an array of challenging careers plus competitive pay (including a 3% raise for the next two years – 3% October 2007; and 3% October 2008).

❧ Career Opportunities ❧

Business Process Management
Computer Programmers
Management Opportunities
Network Administrators
Project Management
Systems Analysts

Applications Development: Oracle; GIS; Web Development
Networking: Netware; Linux; Windows Servers
New Technologies: Windows SharePoint Services

Are you a college student interested in an internship with DEQ?

Students may work full-time or part-time and may be compensated for the work they do or they may participate in the internships on a volunteer basis. Students may also apply for temporary positions.

For more information contact:
Jonnie DeRosier at jderosier@mt.gov or call (406) 444-4218

Visit our Websites:
http://www.deq.mt.gov/index.asp
http://www.deq.mt.gov/NowHiring.asp

Come join our Dynamic Information Technology team!

OIT consists of 23 employees with great opportunity for growth and advancement!